

Job title: Bilingual English teacher (M/F)

Academia, the French leader in tutoring with a strong network of 110 centers nationally, is looking for a native Anglophone English teacher, bilingual in French, for its two agencies in Marseille (8th and 12th arrondissement)

You will take on teaching missions with students of all ages (from CP to Terminale) and all levels of English, giving weekly sessions in small groups of 8 participants maximum, with Wednesdays and Saturdays in priority, one day of the week and during the school vacations.

We are looking for those with a diploma equivalent or superior to a Bac +3 (Bachelor's degree), dynamic personality, a good listener, and passionate about transmission of knowledge. You will be asked to use the Cambridge method based in English immersion with the aid of innovative tools (manuals and interactive whiteboard) to prepare students for the Cambridge certification at the end of the year. You will also take part in the pedagogical aspects in each center (meetings, teacher animation) and more.

The post begins 24th august 2020 for the entire school year 2020 2021 and can be renewable (CDD of 240 to 600 hours per year + short CDD for the school vacations, pay is up to 22euros/hr.)

You would join a passionate and dynamic team of 15 teachers that strives for the success of their students and is eager to promote English learning!

If interested, please send us your CV and letter of motivation to recrutement.sudest@acadomia.fr

(with xavier.laurent@acadomia.fr in copy) and we will get in touch with you shortly.

Looking forward to hearing from you,

Academia Agence de Marseille
